

A CARAVAN TO THE MOTHER-ROOTS OF DEVOTION IN INDIA

TASTING THE DIVERSE AND DELICIOUS SOURCES OF OUR RUHANIAT
LINEAGE AND THE DANCES OF UNIVERSAL PEACE

SAVE THE DATE!
JANUARY - FEBRUARY 2027

Join Jilani, Jahanara and Waduda for a journey into the different streams that flavour our Universal Sufi lineage. Starting on 19 January in Delhi, we will spend two weeks travelling and retreating together, immersed in the sacred landscapes and living spiritual traditions of North India, including time at the Dargah of Hazrat Inayat Khan. We will return to Delhi in time to join with the 100th Urs Celebrations of Hazrat Inayat Khan (1-5 February).

Those who wish can continue on with us to Anandashram in Kerala, the ashram of Papa Ram Das, who inspired Murshid SAM with his mystical Hinduism. Samuel Lewis spent time there in the 1956 and again in 1962, and we will spend a week immersing ourselves deeply in the simple life, rhythms and practices of the ashram. Our travels are designed to finish in time to join the Dance Camp in Gokarna, which runs from 19-26 February, where Jilani will be teaching alongside Vasudeva.

Registration details coming soon. To share your excitement and questions, feel free to contact Waduda on wendywelsh@earthlink.net
